Investment Risk Tolerance

Investing involves risk. Different investment products and strategies involve different degrees of risk. The higher the expected returns of a product or strategy, the greater the risk that you could lose most of your investment. Investments should be chosen based on your objectives, timeframe, and tolerance for market fluctuations.

Please select the degree of risk you (and any co-applicants, if applicable) are willing to take with the assets in your accounts.

- Conservative. I (we) want to preserve my (our) initial principal, with minimal risk, even if that means account(s) do not generate significant income or returns and may not keep pace with inflation.
- Moderately Conservative. I (we) am (are) willing to accept low risk to my (our) initial principal, including low volatility, to seek a modest level of portfolio returns.
- Moderate. I (we) am willing to accept some risk to my (our) initial principal and tolerate some volatility to seek higher returns and understand I (we) could lose a portion of the money invested.
- Moderately Aggressive. I (we) am willing to accept high risk to my (our) initial principal, including high volatility, to seek high returns over time, and understand I (we) could lose a substantial amount of the money invested.
- Significant Risk. I (we) am (are) willing to accept maximum risk to my (our) initial principal to aggressively seek maximum returns, and understand I (we) could lose most, or all, of the money invested.

2 Important Information

ARBITRATION

This agreement contains a pre-dispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement, the parties agree as follows:

- All of the parties to this Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed.
- Arbitration awards are generally final and binding: a party's ability to reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award.
- The panel of arbitrators for securities matters typically will include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- For all other matters, including insurance and/or investment advisory related matters, the arbitrators selected by the claimant and the arbitrator selected by respondent shall, within ten days of their appointment, select a third neutral arbitrator. In the event that they are unable to do so, the parties or their attorneys may request the American Arbitration Association to appoint the third neutral arbitrator.
- The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this Agreement.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until:

- (i) the class certifications denied; or
- (ii) the class is decertified; or
- (iii) the client is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

ARBITRATION PROVISION

It is agreed that all controversies or disputes which may arise between you and us concerning any transaction or the construction, performance or breach of this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us, whether entered into prior to, on, or subsequent to the date of this Agreement, including any controversy concerning whether an issue is abatable, shall be determined by arbitration conducted before, and only before, an arbitration panel set up by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority – Dispute Resolution (FINRA) in accordance with its arbitration procedures, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Any of us may initiate arbitration by filing a written claim with the FINRA. Any arbitration under this agreement will be conducted pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act. The venue for all arbitration proceedings arising out of or relating to this agreement shall be Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. By signing this agreement, I (we) acknowledge and accept Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania as the arbitration hearing location.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

You hereby verify that you are of legal age under the laws of the state where you reside and that you are authorized to enter into this agreement.

BUSINESS CONTINUITY NOTICE

In the wake of the terrorist attacks of 9/11, the American government has required Broker/Dealers to create and implement a business continuity plan. This plan is designed to explain how we would continue to function in case of a Serious Business Disruption (SBD). Our plan anticipates two kinds of SBD's, internal and external. Internal SBD's affect only our firm's ability to communicate and do business, such as a fire in our building. Our firm can give assurances that we have arranged for business to continue at an alternative location (complete with files and communications) both by mail and telephone within 24 hours. External SBD's will be addressed according to their severity. War, terrorist attack and other severe SBDs are addressed in our complete business continuity plan, a copy of which can be obtained by writing our home office at "3582 Brodhead Road Suite 202, Monaca, PA 15061" or may be downloaded from our Web site by visiting http://www.fortunefinancialservices.com/site/assets/files/1135/business_continuity_plan_rev_6-23-2021.pdf. You have access to your funds by contacting the investment company directly.

SEVERABILITY

If any provisions or conditions of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable by any court, regulatory or self-regulatory agency or body, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or condition. The validity of the remaining provisions and conditions shall not be affected thereby, and this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable as if any such invalid or unenforceable provision were not contained herein.
